LORNA G. SCHOFIELD, District Judge:

WHEREAS, by joint letter, dated March 27, 2020, (Dkt. No. 610), Plaintiffs and Defendants request certain redactions to the Opinion & Order, dated March 24, 2020;

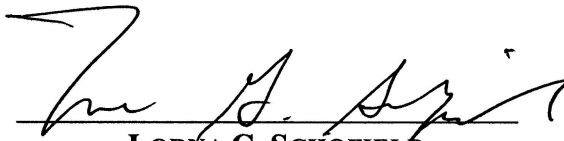

WHEREAS, Defendants' proposed redactions contain confidential and proprietary business information regarding internal business operations and strategy and the parties' trade secrets. Plaintiffs' proposed redactions likewise contain proprietary business information, including information about Plaintiffs' clients. It is hereby ORDERED that both parties' requests are GRANTED. A public copy of the Opinion & Order will follow with the proposed redactions. Although "[t]he common law right of public access to judicial documents is firmly rooted in our nation's history," this right is not absolute, and courts "must balance competing considerations against" the presumption of access. Lugosch v. Pyramid Co. of Onondaga, 435 F.3d 110, 119–20 (2d Cir. 2006) (internal quotation marks omitted); see also Nixon v. Warner Commc'ns., Inc., 435 U.S. 589, 599 (1978) ("[T]he decision as to access is one best left to the sound discretion of the trial court, a discretion to be exercised in light of the relevant facts and circumstances of the particular case."). The proposed redactions are narrowly tailored to prevent unauthorized dissemination of sensitive business information.

The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to close Dkt. No. 610.
